

Health Advisory 9 COVID-19

Announcement: Update on Teaching and Learning in the pertaining to Kuching returned to RED ZONE

As previously announced few days ago, Kuching has returned to Red Zone due to an increase in locally transmitted cases of Covid-19 over the past few days. In line with this latest announcement and also to comply with Ministry of Higher Education circular and Sarawak Disaster Management Committee (SDMC), we would like to advise that the Sunway College Kuching shall operate as follows:

- i) All teaching and learning will take place solely online till further notice. There will be no face to face classes on campus and the campus will be closed to students till further notice.
- ii) All staff must comply with the strict health and safety regulations mandated or risk being disallowed on campus.

We continue to be guided by the Ministry of Higher Education Malaysia, Sarawak Disaster Management Committee (SDMC) and local authorities. Please remember to stay connected and maintain communication during this unprecedented and trying times.

The College would like to thank all students for their flexibility, adaptability and understanding as we strive to keep everyone's studies fully on track during these challenging times.

Once again thank you for your support and co-operation and please stay safe and well!

Joseph Lim
Chief Executive Officer
Sunway College Kuching
25th February 2021 @4pm